Dear John:

On behalf of the Twenty-seventh Executive Seminar I would like to thank you for hosting the luncheon for us in the Executive Dining Room last Thursday and for taking time from your busy schedule to deliver such thoughtful, timely and informative remarks to the group.

STAT The entire day at the Agency was absolutely first-rate. The other speakers--
Chuck Briggs, Clair George, Dick Kerr and Jim Hirsch--also gave candid, forthright presentations and answered any and all questions raised from this group of hard-line questioners.

I speak for every Member of the Seminar when I say that this experience was one of the major highlights of our year. We are all most grateful.

Sincerely,

Joe Twinam
Dean

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Executive Director
Deputy Director for AdministrationFROM:
Director of Training and EducationSUBJECT: Request to Attend Luncheon for the Executive
Seminar in National and International Affairs

1. The Executive Seminar in National and International Affairs, a 10-month program conducted by the Foreign Service Institute, will spend Thursday, 9 May 1985, at Headquarters to meet with key Agency officials. We would like to invite you to join this group at lunch in the Executive Dining Room from 1230-1400 hours.

2. There will be 32 Seminar participants and two FSI Staff members. Approximately half are senior Foreign Service Officers. The others are representatives of Government departments and agencies with foreign affairs responsibilities, plus the four uniformed services. A brochure giving biographic data on the members and the staff is attached.

3. It is suggested that you say a few words to the group at the conclusion of the luncheon.

4. Prior to the luncheon, we will forward a list of CIA officers who will attend.

Attachment

☒ I will attend the luncheon on Thursday, 9 May 1985, from 1230-1400.

☐ I will not attend the luncheon.
